ABOUT:

MISSION STATEMENT:

The USCX Cyclocross Series is the pinnacle in the sport and delivers a consistent and exceptional experience for all involved. It is designed to showcase the professional caliber of events included within the series with the goal of driving amateur and elite athletes and spectators to attend. The vision of the series is to enhance the amazing sport of cyclocross and bring it to the forefront.

OVERVIEW:

The US needs a top tier cyclocross series and athletes consistently ask for it year after year. This four-event series is all about best-in-class event production and a phenomenal athlete, spectator, sponsor experience. There is consistency between events. Each event in the series will be both unique to itself and its region's culture but unmistakably part of this amazing series. Promoters involved share the vision that attention-to-detail and professionalism matter. Sponsors, spectators and athletes in attendance can "feel" the special and exceptional vibe that the events in this series bring to the table. Sponsors understand that their brands are represented in a manner that is on par with other professional sports.

GCN:

The USCX Cyclocross Series is elated to partner with GCN and all that they bring to this series. The Men's and Women's UCI Elites races in the series will be livestreamed each day of each event and broadcast to a world-wide audience. This footage will also be archived for future viewing. With GCN as the broadcast platform, the USCX Cyclocross Series will be poised to bring cyclocross in the U.S. to the forefront.
